

Frontend Developer- Assignment

1. Create a header. Inside the header, add multiple components and navigate by using lazy loading.
2. Change components based on the selected tab from the header.
3. In the Home component, add a design with the text "Dog" and an image. Use Z-index while designing the page related to the dog.
4. Make all pages responsive .
5. Add toggle button to switch website in dark and white mode

